Thank you for being here to help provide this service to people like me who are in financial difficulty. This represents an increase of 0.9% compared to the previous one. Annual Survey of People 89% response rate This high response rate allows us to have confidence in the results to celebrate our successes and identify where to improve. Early comments suggest that we have been successful in our goal of increasing access for those in urgent need of a debt relief, even when it may be the most appropriate solution in their circumstances. Delivery of economic trust Supporting those in financial difficulties In 2016-17 the Judge issued 11,332 bankruptcy orders. The investigation investment and other scams finished in public interest showed that more than £121 million had been taken from the victims, but our interventions prevented the loss of another £78 million. I am pleased to report that the Insolvency Service has continued to meet its published objectives across a wide range of activities. Customer Our ability to address and address financial irregularities has been improved this year, as we have welcomed colleagues responsible for the enforcement of criminal law in our business. I also welcome the positive reaction to our bankruptcy campaign in order to address some of those erroneous concepts that stigmatize what can often be the most appropriate thing to release debt. The measure will bring greater efficiency to the process to lead the evildoers before justice. I am very happy to be able to move forward and complete this form knowing that my needs are being served and attended, and not to mention the relief that I feel our customers' research tells us that people still have erroneous ideas about bankruptcy and They are concerned about the stigma that surrounds it. Our work has taken place in a context of uncertainty, since markets react to events in Europe and saved. In October 2016, we launched a new website that addresses the 12 most common concerns and mistakes around bankruptcy. It is estimated that 22 million pounds of modernized insolvency standards have been saved. Punishment of staff commitment 59% (8% more than last year) we believe that the engagement champions contributed to this result. In 2016-17 we disqualify 1214 directors in total and made 430 referrals to the judicial
